“Corrupted Devotion”

“I fear that somehow your pure and undivided devotion to Christ will be corrupted, just as Eve was deceived by the cunning ways of the serpent.”

2 Corinthians 11:3 NLT

The goal of every true disciple should be pure and undivided devotion to Christ.

- The Zebulunite warriors of King David (1 Chronicles 12:33)
- The illusion of split loyalties (Matthew 6:24)
- What a “Lordship lifestyle” looks like (Luke 6:46)

Satan works unceasingly to compromise our spiritual devotion.

- The classic example of deception (Genesis 3:1-8)
- Satan prefers to work undetected (Matthew 16:21-25)
- The Masquerade Master (2 Corinthians 11:14b-15a)
- Halloween holiness (Matthew 23:28)

Discernment in dealing with the Devil comes from the Scriptures and the Holy Spirit.

- The example of Christ (Matthew 4 “It is written . . .”)
- Submission to God is the key (James 4:7)
- The power of the Holy Spirit (Luke 10:17-19)

What is the condition of your devotion to Christ this morning? Is it complete or is it compromised? Is it pure or is it corrupted? Has Satan masqueraded his way into your life, your marriage, your family, your priorities, your devotion to Christ? You can find deliverance today by surrendering afresh to God.
